

New "Best in Class" online training

Learn the techniques and skills to respond to a hazardous liquid, natural gas or carbon dioxide pipeline incident by scanning the below QR code. Awareness, Operations and Technician level courses are available using the National Association of State Fire Marshals' "Pipeline Emergencies" Program.

FREE OF CHARGE

TO FIRST RESPONDERS

Access the training at:
http://pipelines.training

API American Petroleum Institute | LIQUID ENERGY PIPELINE ASSOCIATION

New "Best in Class" online training

Use the below QR code or visit www.Pipeline101.org/Resources to learn more about pipeline emergency response, including CO2, natural gas liquids, swift water and winter weather guidance.

For additional information about the Training Portal or the many other API/LEPA initiatives, visit:

www.liquidenergypipelines.org/page/emergency-response

or:
https://pipeline101.org/learn-more

© Copyright 2024 — American Petroleum Institute (API), all rights reserved.