

BP Direct Access Plan

The BP Direct Access Plan terminated on 30 April 2010

The following historic values are for information purposes only.

In general, all cash dividends, whether paid in cash or reinvested, are considered taxable income at the time they are paid or reinvested. In addition, brokerage commissions on purchases of ADSs acquired through reinvestment (which are paid by BP on your behalf) are treated as distributions subject to income tax. The cost basis for US income tax purposes of ADSs acquired through reinvestment is the cost of the ADSs acquired (as noted in the table below), increased by the amount of the brokerage commissions with respect to such shares paid by BP on your behalf.

These values have been restated following the BP Amoco 2-for-1 stock split of October 4, 1999 which doubled the number of shares in issue.
