Cautionary Statement

Forward-looking Statements - Cautionary Statement
This presentation and the associated slides and discussion contain forward-looking statements, particularly those regarding production and income; third quarter E&P turn-around activities and the effect on volumes, costs and margins; our refining and petrochemical margins; capital expenditure; divestment proceeds and timing and their impact on production and income in 2010, and planned disposals over 18 months; dividend payments; expected underlying quarterly charges for Other business & corporate; expected changes in foreign exchange effects; reduction in the net debt level within the next 18 months; R&M pre-tax performance opportunity; completion of OMS roll out; relief well operations; future costs arising from the Gulf of Mexico oil spill; partner recovery; financial compensation and environmental restoration; and the adjudication of claims arising out of the spill. By their nature, forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties because they relate to events and depend on circumstances that will or may occur in the future. Actual results may differ from those expressed in such statements, depending on a variety of factors, including the timing of bringing new fields on stream; future levels of industry product supply; demand and pricing; OPEC quota restrictions; PSA effects; operational problems; general economic conditions; political stability and economic growth in relevant areas of the world; changes in laws and governmental regulations; regulatory or legal actions; exchange rate fluctuations; development and use of new technology; changes in public expectations and other changes in business conditions; the actions of competitors; natural disasters and adverse weather conditions; wars and acts of terrorism or sabotage; and other factors discussed elsewhere in this presentation. For more information you should refer to our Annual Report and Accounts 2009 and our 2009 Annual Report on Form 20-F filed with the US Securities and Exchange Commission.

Reconciliations to GAAP - This presentation also contains financial information which is not presented in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). A quantitative reconciliation of this information to the most directly comparable financial measure calculated and presented in accordance with GAAP can be found on our website at www.bp.com

Cautionary Note to US Investors - We use certain terms in this presentation, such as “resources” and “non-proved reserves”, that the SEC’s rules prohibit us from including in our filings with the SEC. U.S. investors are urged to consider closely the disclosures in our Form 20-F, SEC File No. 1-06262. This form is available on our website at www.bp.com. You can also obtain this form from the SEC by calling 1-800-SEC-0330 or by logging on to their website at www.sec.gov.

Gulf of Mexico oil spill
Escrow account

• BP to provide funds over time
  - $5bn in 2010, during 3Q and 4Q
  - $1.25bn per quarter after 4Q 2010 until $20bn total
  - Commitments assured by US assets valued at $20bn
  - Account is neither ceiling nor floor on BP liability
  - BP has reversionary interest in account

• Purpose of account is to pay
  - Claims adjudicated by Gulf Coast Claims Facility (GCCF)
  - Final judgements in litigation/settlements
  - Natural Resources Damages related costs
  - State or local response costs (but not federal or BP response costs)

• Gulf Coast Claims Facility administered by Ken Feinberg
  - Adjudicates all Oil Pollution Act 1990 and tort claims – not state or local
  - Claimants who accept final determination of GCCF to sign release upon payment: dissatisfied claimants keep all legal rights
  - BP retains contribution rights against other parties
Gulf of Mexico oil spill
Implications for industry

• Surface response capability
• Subsea response capability
• Deepwater drilling systems and equipment
• Operating model for deepwater

• BP committed to:
