

Chapter 16 Contributors

16 CONTRIBUTORS

This Environmental and Social Impact Assessment (ESIA) for the South Caucasus Pipeline Expansion Project in Georgia has been carried out by RSK Environment Ltd on behalf of BP and the South Caucasus Pipeline Company (SCPC).

RSK acknowledges the collective and individual contributions from a range of companies and external stakeholders in the preparation of this ESIA report. RSK is grateful for the willing assistance of these companies and individuals and their valuable contribution to a rigorous and comprehensive ESIA report.

RSK acknowledges with thanks the following contributors:

Field Surveys, Data, Research and Analysis

ACT Research (socio-economics and translation)
BMT Cordah (socio-economics)
Dzelkva (ecology, GIS and translation)
Envirolab (soil analysis)
Scientific Research Firm 'GAMMA' (water analysis)
NewFields (health impact assessment)
F. Giovannetti (land acquisition)
Landsker Archaeology (cultural heritage)
Modetower (cultural heritage)

Modelling and Engineering

BP
CB&I (engineering design and noise modelling)
Granherne KBR (air dispersion modelling)

Consultations and Discussions

Aarhus Centre
Central Asia and Trans-Caucasus Business Information Group
Ecological Monitoring Centre
Green Club
Georgian Oil and Gas Corporation
Georgian Organisation of the Scouts Movement
Green Movement
Ministry of Culture and Monument Protection
Ministry of Economic and Sustainable Development
Ministry of Energy and Natural Resources
Ministry of Environmental Protection
Orchis
World Wide Fund for Nature

Stakeholders listed in Appendix C2 who provided comments on the Draft ESIA.

Representatives of the regions, municipalities, towns, territorial organs and villages in the Project area.