

BP has maintained a long-standing, mutually beneficial relationship with Indonesia through improving the social welfare of the local communities where we work, with a cumulative investment which exceeds

$25 million

Through our Tangguh Sustainable Development Programs,

we directly support development in all areas

- Health
- Education
- Livelihood
- Capacity Building
- Papuan Enterprise
- Good Governance
- Community Relations

Since our social programs were first implemented in 2005

Papua Barat has benefited from the continual development of Tangguh plant, particularly communities in the villages around Tangguh LNG.

Monthly household income has increased by

72% ↑

from 2007 to 2015

Number of Papuan companies involved as contractors

Mean years of schooling has increased by

76% ↑

from 2007 to 2013

Malaria prevalence is down from

23% in 2000

0.01% in 2015

>1,600 tons

Since 2008, more than 1,600 tons of local farming and fishery products have been supplied to Tangguh LNG catering, to the value of

Rp 37 billion

Number of households in villages around Tangguh LNG with access to clean water has increased from 157 to 1,101

in 2007 in 2013

>Rp 680 million

In 2015, 30 indigenous Papuans from Teluk Bintuni received entrepreneurship training in AC maintenance and clothing manufacture. Since then, their business have a combined gross revenue of more than Rp 680 million

4+4MW

Tangguh supplies 4+4MW of power to PLN, for villages around Tangguh LNG. 9 villages have received electricity, with a further technical evaluation that may enable a further 4MW in the future to light more villages

Number of neonatal deaths* in villages around Tangguh LNG is down from

35 cases in 2013 to 8 cases in 2015

*Less than 28 days after birth

